Just as Christ gave Himself entirely for us, we are called to offer our time, talent, and treasure in service to others. The love we receive in the Eucharist is not meant to be kept it is meant to overflow. It fills us, transforms us, and moves us to become faithful stewards of all that God has entrusted to us. Through this way of life, we reflect Christ's presence in the world.

"They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." (LUKE 9:17)

Each Steward has a role in God's plan; you just need to place your trust in the Lord. Nothing is impossible with God. You just may be the answer to someone else's prayer.

Al igual que Cristo se entregó completamente por nosotros, estamos llamados a ofrecer nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro al servicio de los demás. El amor que recibimos en la Eucaristía no es para guardarlo, sino para desbordarlo. Nos llena, nos transforma y nos impulsa a ser fieles administradores de todo lo que Dios nos ha confiado. A través de este estilo de vida, reflejamos la presencia de Cristo en el mundo.

"Todos comieron y se saciaron; y se recogieron doce cestas llenas con los pedazos que sobraron." (LUCAS 9:17)

Cada mayordomo tiene un papel en el plan de Dios; sólo tienes que poner tu confianza en el Señor. Nada es imposible para Dios. Tú puedes ser la respuesta a la oración de otra persona.

Beware of scammers

The Archdiocese of Miami has heard reports of scammers impersonating Archbishop Thomas Wenski and some of our priests on Facebook, Instagram and other social media platforms, as well as via texts and phone calls. Please be aware that no archdiocesan priest or bishop will ever contact you directly asking for money, gift cards or anything else.

If you, your friends, family, or parish staff receive a direct message from anyone impersonating Archbishop Wenski or one of our priests, please do not respond. Report the fake account immediately to the social media platform and let the archdiocesan Communications Office know by emailing mrivas@theadom.org.

Impersonator scams also should be reported to the Federal Trade Commission by calling 1- 877-382-4357; or Florida's Consumer Protection Division, 1-866-966-7226. Find out more about the types of scams making the rounds at myfloridalegal.com.
